

BARRED OWL NEST BOX

The box should be placed in January, 20 to 30 feet high in a mature lowland hardwood area, preferably within 200 feet of water. It should not be on the edge of a clearing or within 150 feet of a residence. The entrance hole should not be obscured by branches or leaves, but a perch near the nest box is desirable.

Note: No hinge door needed - clean through entrance hole

